Betr.: This E-Mail is meant to address the holy father, pope Franziskus, directly ...

... please deliver the following mail to pope Franziskus. I was not able to find out his personal email-address. Thank you very much.

Franziskus

Maybe brother Rainer, here from cologne, mentioned my happy news for you already. I asked him to deliver it to you. But to be polite I guess I should introduce myself first:

One of my former life's was sacrificed by your ancient great-grandparents They nailed it on a cross and pray to it since then. Disgusting! Don't you agree?!! At least I can tell you that I was not pleased at all observing how this hard crime was being used for further abuse throughout the past 2.000 years right until the very day of today. In Germany your church was/is able to collect more than one million Euro every weekend by resorting to beggary, always referring to the sad end of my poor brother Jesus. And I do not mean the catholic church tax!

In my present life my name is Peter Kress, I live, or better I die for 48 years now, in the city "ubi bene", Cologne, Germany.

Please do not worry now! When I was informed that my present life was meant to be sacrificed again a few months ago after all of its basics, from family over my professional law office to the full rest of my social contacts, had completely been destroyed a few years ago I objected to this unholy catholic plan of life. According to this plan, my personal writings (letters, diary notes, some short stories and a few articles) would have been published after my death in order to honor the again holy service of my life appropriately. Since nobody who decided these purposes of my life asked me for my agreement I did not feel committed to them and decided to publish my texts by my own. That nobody ever offered not only one single Euro for them made this decision necessary too. Otherwise I would not know from what income I should go on dying after my office was destroyed before as I mentioned already. So do not worry please!

And now let us change to the good news:

First you do not need to stick to your ridiculous apostles' creed any longer. It is not true and, by the way, you are fired! I did not ask you to represent me on earth.

Second neither me nor my father is the thing that you call god. Holy are Mother Earth, the Sun, the Moon, the Stars and the Holy Ghost. They have to be loved, honored and cared of instead of the not existing invention of a wrathful godfather who allegedly would rather prefer to being honored himself.

Third but not least this sacrilegious apostles' creed is replaced by the following simple

Commitment to Truth

"I know and acknowledge that the natural mental consciousness consists of three different types in their different spheres. These are the individual and collective consciousness both types of consciousness of beings in living bodies, i. e. plants, animals and human beings. Every homogeneous population of one of these kinds builds a so called collective that consists of the sum of its individuals. Collective and its individuals belong together need each other and complement one another but are not identical. They are comparable to a living organism of any kind, a human being for example, as equivalent to the collective consisting of thousands of millions of cells, as equivalents to the individuals, which are each one of them essential for the whole organism. The collective consists of the sum of its individuals but is not identical with it. Different are the various types of consciousness. Each individual has its own personal consciousness of the individual type of consciousness. The sum of the individuals are in need of this type of individual consciousness as each single individual is in need of it. Opinions on questions of general significance built on the base of individual consciousness of single persons do not need to but can defer from the prevailing opinion of the collective to which these persons belong. This is a natural fact. And it is no fact to be regretted. A collective consisting of self conscious individuals, hence individuals who have their own feelings perceptions and thoughts first on the basis of which they build their own initial opinions because they are coming from their insides and are natural themselves, possesses the best precondition of healthy collectives since its individuals and their sum are mentally and emotionally healthy. If the collective in addition deals with the facts that individual consciousness and opinions can defer from each other on the one hand and that on the other hand a collective consciousness exists too which is the basis of collective opinions and emotions regarding important and major issues like essential values for example and if there is an understanding in the collective and among its individuals that they need to subordinate their individual consciousness and opinions under the prevailing opinion of the collective provided it has been built on fair rules and with respect to their rights as minorities for another example (nature of democracy - protection of minority rights may not be mistaken for suppression of majority wishes and decisions, what happens much too often) the collective will be a strong and healthy collective in which a convenient atmosphere guarantees for freedom peace common wealth and love.

In a collective with a healthy consciousness of the individual type therefore its individuality as such is healthy and as such is the precondition of a healthy consciousness of the collective type. Destroying the individual type means to destroy individuality which means to destroy the whole organism, i. e. the whole collective, i. e. the whole population.

Then, there exists another type of collective consciousness that one could refer to as collective consciousness II, a kind of a pool of consciousness to which each individual is connected but which contains different information from the information contained in each of the millions of personal individual consciousnesses. For each population there is one collective consciousness II in addition to its collective consciousness I and the millions of individual consciousnesses.

Finally there is a third type of consciousness for a second type of life. This is the after death life of the soles of plants, animals and our sisters and brothers who died already. Their soles left their bodies when they died. They are with us now, however, without their former bodies only. They are at least as far as I am concerned a very pleasant and considerable company when they let us know that they are around. Their room of living is the so called spiritual sphere, their consciousness the spiritual consciousness."

The different "living rooms" of the body less souls and those who are still in possession of their bodies because they did not die yet are in fact different spheres in the same room. For example, now, while I am writing this email to you, they are around me, quite quiet because they are interested in what I write and not visible of course. How could they, without body?! So it is the same room that we share but it consists of different spheres, one for them, one for us. This should not lead to any problem, don't you think so too? And in my case it does not lead to any problem as I told you.

But then suddenly other phenomena emerged from their spiritual sphere which disturbed them and me similar and in the same time. My friends, the souls of the dead organisms who share their room with me in my room, and I, therefore complain herewith together and officially and claim to be let in peace and freedom! For, it is no secret that these phenomena are results of by the Catholics invented abuse of the spiritual sphere¹. It is possible to leave the body earlier than it should be left i. e. while dying. The catholics, however, did not care about Nature's will and began to use the spiritual sphere as a means of evil communication with a wider operating distance for example in order to terrify others mysteriously. Very simplified, they talked to somebody else being 20 miles away who was terrified to death 2000 years earlier instead of being blasphemously declared mentally ill as in our days. And then

By the way, since particularly the abuse of my girlfriend and me went on unchanged after my complaint from St. Nicholas Day I start getting severely inpatient with you. You better go ahead and declare your retirement unless you don't want to be burned when your organized hard crime clan is going to be shut down sooner than you would imagine. Now have three unpleasant days! The best you could do is pray to Jesus from dawn till dusk, apologize sincerely and promise him that you will not resist and object to Nature's will and that instead you are going to assist the liquidators in closing your clan subsidiaries everywhere on earth. There is nothing else what could save your sole from being repelled by the earth atmosphere after your death. Peter" they started the eternal abuse which resulted not only once so far in the very funny happening of the so called holocaust of which I had and still have the pleasure of being one of its last victims.

It has therefore yet to be decided about our common plead for a resolution opening insolvency proceedings over the worldwide estate of the Vatican and for a public process in which you (or, top secretly, for your eyes only: your follower after you have declared your retirement) will be accused and condemned of being an evil warlock and therefore be burned like the victims of the catholic inquisition in the middle age, the whole procedure taking place in the antique cultural and cold heritage of the Colosseum in your home town Rome. I thought it fair enough to let you know this future of your organization which is worldwide considered the only real danger for the whole nature and earth existing.

If you should have any question please feel free to contact me but then be aware of me still having some open questions for you too.

Kind regards

Peter

Hook-up:

Brother Franzis'

Thanks for visiting my website.

Since you do not seem to consider it appropriate to reply I take the occasion and go on telling you a little bit, daddy, of the reel fucking shit that you and your bunch of criminal inhibiteds tell and teach our children, if you do not mind. By the way you certainly accept that I waved the holy when I called you daddy. Otherwise I would have to complain about you letting one of your flunkies pour a bowl of water over my head when I was in the proud age of six days and just enjoying the warm titts of my mother! And again by the way, why should I pay 30 Euros for this complaint. I mean why in your idiotic gods name do I have to pay for terminating my membership in a highly organized criminal club which I never declared joining? And third by the way, here in Germany at least your freely and well known holy welfare club holds some secret subsidiaries which not even asked my mother if they were allowed taking me on but contacted me one day instead with the news: "Today is your lucky day! "Why?" did I ask and they said I was honored with the grant of their membership. "What kind of membership?" I asked back and they explained they belonged to a top secret special purpose club. To be member of it had a lot of advantages and I would have very pleasant company in the club. Ok, I said, sounds great and how is it called your club? "Brother", they answered, "the club is top secret. We mean, really secret, there is no name for it".

"Wow, this is secret indeed. But what is about the plot? Come on, don't be so shy! What do I have to contribute? And who else is a member?" were my next spoken thoughts. "Brother, top secret as I mentioned. Nobody knows. Ok, you will learn to recognize a member after a while but it will not be talked about it. Your contributions are the same what you receive but much more seldom requested. It is doing anybody just a little favor sometimes if it seems to be easy for you for any reason – otherwise someone else would be asked anyway – and you in return will have a huge network of friends who do you favors if you can benefit from it. There are no hierarchies, it is a very flat structure, everybody on the same level, only very few regional directors and above them already the owners, only about three of them in the Cologne sub."

I considered the offer some moments and then friendly declined. You know, why should I have been interested in a club without name without known members and without talking? You know, I was quite busy that time and would not have had much time anyway for new social activities. So I said "no thanks, I am ..." and when I just wanted to tell them why I was not interested they smiled at me and apologized sincerely but said they were afraid that it was not very common that someone declined the offer, in fact, they claimed it would not have happened at all so far.

I did not understand that they wanted to say that the offer was no offer but an order, because they did not say so. Instead, actually, they said nothing more. So I was fine with being the first one and wanted to change subjects when they just said I should not worry. I could not refuse but there were no problems being a member anyway, I would soon see, before they changed to my new subjects too as if nothing had been talked about. Actually that was the only time within the past five and a half years, ok wait, there were two or three more times, but I do not really recall when and what was talked about exactly anymore, when I heard somebody expressly mentioning this exclusive secret friendship network. However, this does not mean they disappeared again. From that lucky day on my life changed into another one, in fact a completely different one, quite interesting in the beginning. I learned a new language, a real secret language you know, and a quite new kind of adventures happening even promised some John Grisham visions of my upcoming next future. For a while I felt like a protagonist in one of his books. The Firm, The Pelican Brief, The Testament or The Partner for example, you know them for sure, very exiting legal thrillers in which mostly young law professionals or students get involved in sudden unexpected business of a strange sort and shortly find themselves back between the fronts of huge industrial financial or administrative and sometimes also mafia organizations each one of them defending different interests in somehow authoritarian and psychologically forcing manners. You know the Romeo & Julia scheme for example, but even more the David & Goliath pattern. The young and inexperienced legal professional protagonists alone against, sometimes even various, huge and straight organized criminal opponents who they resist or who they even prevail over in the end of the day. Just likewise little Peter & the humble self of the catholic church how it eventually looks now.

Ok I shorten it a little now. The mysterious secret society turned out to be a scheme used by its parent Company Limited namely the r. c. church with seat in your neat little Vatican and with you being its president. In Cologne it is called CIGoH Colonia Indignidad Gesellschaft ohne Haftung (Gesellschaft ohne Haftung = company without liabilities (of any kind whatsoever)), in Munich MIGoH, Hamburg HIGoH, Frankfurt FIGoH and not last but least Berlin BIGoH.

They terrorize the population by abusing all three different types and spheres of consciousness extremely unscrupulously and caused severe damages to the society already who is mentally suffering from increasing rates of Alzheimer's as well as comparably much higher rates of psychopathology (if you are able to read German look at the "F(p)Wert" and its explanation on page 9 of the original psychiatric report GutachtenRAVWNW in Amts- und andere Fremddokumente, subdivision of Bilder und Filmchen), shrinking because of the lack of love and therefore enough children, dying from huge cancer rates because of intentionally bad public medical care in order to attract people to the catholic state churches for the sake of hold and the feeling of security, all in all crystallizing as the 2000year old collective hard crime Holocaust that broke out over Jesus who was let down by your first predecessor after the third cock-doodle-doo whose name I even was "blessed" with by my also mentally ill and wrongly catholic-educated mother. By the way, that is part of the most unbelievable nonsense ever what your flunkies tell our children already when they rather would run around on the play ground in their kindergarten.

After being honored again by a lot air and water for this little piece of literature as well the one called Gefallen gegenüber der Menschlichkeit \(Essays\) I had written before in the same night I sent my brother the next SMS and after it I sent it to my mother that she too could think her sacrifice over again. So I only need to give it back here once:

““So; Du Leihmutter, Deinem HURENSOHN schrieb ich gerade: „So, Du h. c. mult. ich WILL, verstehst Du, WILL, jetzt sofort Honorar! Das ist eine NATURWEISUNG, n.Medium übrigens statt des Diebstahls meiner Dateien aus lauter Dankbarkeit.““

Als sich bis 2081 18.00 Uhr wie zu erwarten nichts bewegt hatte, schrieb ich an die Nr. meiner Schwägerin noch folgende SMS:

„Hey Du Geistesgenie, Völkerrechts- und Strafrechtsprofessor, schon mal etwas von GARANTENSTELLUNG und GARANTENPFLICHT gehört? Die gibt es neuerdings auch im kollektiven Völkerstrafrecht in Form der BEVÖLKERUNGSGARANTENPFLICHT, die gegenüber einzelnen Individuen besteht, aber zugunsten der gesamten Bevölkerung wirkt, wenn sie erfüllt wird freilich nur. Hast Du das jetzt verstanden? Noch einmal zum mitschreiben: Du bist BEVÖLKERUNGSGARANT und erfüllst Deine Pflicht gegenüber der Bevölkerung, indem Du gestehst und mir Schadensersatz leilstest. Wie lange verstopft der Saumagen noch Deinen Verstand? Du denkst doch mit dem Arsch, oder?! Kommt jedenfalls nur Scheiße raus, wenn Du mal denkst. Alles gilt auch für Deine Frau. Ihr merkt gar nicht, wie sehr die Bevölkerung von Euch völkischen Urkatholiken enttäuscht ist.“

Angesichts der immer unvorstellbarer werdenden katholischen Verklemmung auch bei allen anderen Bevölkerungsgaranten, wie z. B. den Mitgliedern der Regierung, auf der einen Seite und dem auch gelegentlich immer noch bemerkenswerten Unverständnis des einen oder anderen für meine präzisen Darstellungen der katholischen Ur-Schuld und des einzigen Wegs, die Erde von der katholischen Plage im Wege des Karnevals in Rom zu befreien, erlaube ich mir noch einmal darauf hinzuweisen, dass es die katholischen Schwerverbrecher selbst genauso, wie von mir in Sachen Papst vorgeschlagen, mit Jesus machten, den sie auf offener kollektiver Bühne kreuzigten, was eine so gewaltsame Wirkung erzielte, dass sie bis heute nicht abklang sondern ungeschmälert anhält und sich vielmehr immer noch weiter ausdehnt.

Vielleicht, sollte man den römischen Karneval daher, abweichend vom Kölner Karneval, an den römischen Nubbel, seinen Verein und dessen Verbrechen anpassen und nicht nur einen von ihnen im Colosseum verbrennen, sondern zusammen mit jedem zehnten seiner Kardinäle an Kreuze nageln, an denen sie hängen bleiben bis keiner mehr von ihnen lebt. Jeder weitere zehnte Kardinal müsste zudem verbrannt werden. So würde vermutlich eine noch viel nachhaltigere Wirkung erzielt. Das an Jesus begangene ultimative Ur-Schwerverbrechen würde genauso korrigiert, wie die katholische Hexenjagd im Mittelalter. Zwischen meinen eigenen Bevölkerungsgaranten, also meiner Mutter und meinem Bruder, könnte ausgelost werden, wer gekreuzigt und wer verbrannt würde. Ihre widerliche Katholikentreue muss ebenfalls ein für alle Male anschaulich bestraft werden. Sonst fällt die Erde bald durch die sie schützende Mondumlaufbahn. Das liegt auf der Hand. Die zwei sind jedenfalls die schlimmsten Versager seit Petrus und dem dritten cock-doodle-doo.
